

DuQuoin Second Baptist Church capped off a winning season by finishing first in the tournament of Division “B” of the DuQuoin Church Softball League. After finishing the regular season at the top of their division of 8 teams with a record of 15-3, the Second Baptist team won 4 straight games in the season-ending tournament to take the trophy and end with a 19-3 overall record.

Besides showing a tough defense, the team’s nine starters all hit over .435 for the season. Along with pitching responsibilities, Kalin Bridges led the team in batting, by having 10 in-the-park home runs and 43 runs batted in. Bridges and Nathan Jackson were selected for the all-star team.

Coached by Keith Harris and Kent Eaton, Second Baptist attributes their strong season to playing as a team, having fun, great fan support and Keith’s prayers. The team would like to thank Adam Lewis, Jim Dimitroff and David Lewis for scheduling, field preparation and serving as umpires.

This years player’s roster includes Keith Harris, Nathan Jackson, Hank Fulk, Jaron Alvis, Kent Eaton, Richard Pigg, David Jeschke, Duree Purcell, Matt Jackson, Josh James, Kalin Bridges, Luke Eaton, Erica Harris, Melissa Pearson, Jacob Jeschke, Tim Cochran, Jordan George, Connor Eaton and David Eaton.

August 27, the church family hosted their annual spaghetti dinner for the DuQuoin High School football team, cheerleaders and Indianettes. Following the dinner a short testimony was given by Hank Fulk. Pastor Kent opened and closed the hour with a prayer.

Thanks to those who brought brownies, cookies and to those who prepared the dinner and to the set up and clean up crew.
